

JAKE & FAITH

Thank you for taking the time to read about us and consider us in your selfless decision. We hope you find comfort and joy in reading about our lives while getting to know us better.

"We love building traditions together and cannot wait to share them with a child."

OUR LIFE TOGETHER

We met back in 2019 and quickly knew our connection was something special. After two and a half years of dating, on a beautiful fall afternoon, we got married.

Some of our favorite things we do together include making new traditions. One of them is going on a summer trip every year. We love searching for new places to explore, restaurants to eat at, and pools to swim in. Since we love traveling every year, we are excited to have a new little member join our family trips.

Jake works full time in our local school district as a Choir Director and serves on the admin team as the Dean of Students and Athletic Director. Jake loves his job, the students he serves, and the team he works alongside. Jake also serves on the worship team at our church and loves being able to serve Jesus with his friends.

Faith has worked in Human Resources for the last seven years and currently serves as the HR Manager for a hospitality company. Faith loves getting to know team members and enjoys working alongside them. Her favorite part of the day is connecting with the team, learning about new cultures, and being the person others can come to for guidance, support, and advice.

Between the two of us, we have seven nieces and nephews. We love spending time with all of the kids doing just about anything. We live across the street from our local pickleball court, elementary school, park, and new pool, so finding fun things to do is easy. We are lucky enough to own a house with a huge backyard and garden with plenty of room to run and play.

MEET FAITH

written by Jake

Faith is the most caring and selfless person I have ever met. She has a natural ability to know how to take care of people and recognizes when they need support. Faith was truly meant to be a mother. Her nieces and nephews adore her, and she adores them, never missing an opportunity to celebrate, support, and encourage them.

She loves spending time in the garden growing fruits and vegetables that she cans and shares with family. She loves to bake and create treats for any occasion, and she is always the first to plan family gatherings with both sides of our family. She also loves animals, especially our cat Albert, along with pigs and cows. I am so excited to watch her become a mother.

caring | selfless | supportive | loving

"Faith has a natural gift for loving, nurturing, and caring for others."

MEET JAKE

written by Faith

Jake is one of the kindest and most intentional people I have ever known. He has a steady presence that makes everyone around him feel safe and valued. He shows love through his actions every single day, whether that is encouraging a student, serving at church, or simply taking care of our home. When I am with Jake, I feel calm, supported, and completely known. He is my best friend and my safe place.

Through our journey with infertility, Jake has been my strength and constant source of hope. He carries both joy and disappointment with grace, always pointing us back to faith and trust. I have seen him lead with compassion and humility in every season of life.

Jake is an incredible uncle, and our nieces and nephews adore him. He is always ready to play, give shoulder rides, or turn into their personal jungle gym. Watching him with children makes it easy to picture him as a dad. I cannot wait to see the love, patience, and guidance he will bring to fatherhood.

kind | intentional | thoughtful | loving

"Jake leads with steady love, quiet strength, and a heart that is ready to be a dad."

THINGS THAT MAKE US HAPPY:

JAKE

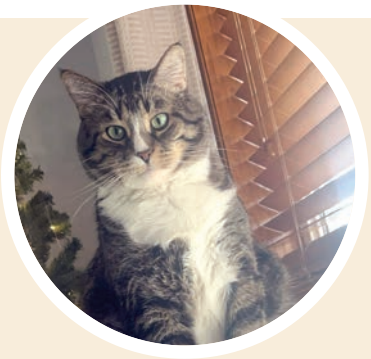

- Jesus
- Travel
- Family
- Good food
- Sports

FAITH

- Albert the cat
- Family and friends
- Baking
- Gardening and canning
- Napping

MEET ALBERT

Albert is such a good boy with many hobbies. He loves treats, snuggles, naps, and going outside. One of Albert's favorite activities is watching out the window to keep our house safe. Albert is also great with kids. He usually comes to say hello when people are over and helps make sure everything is going well. Safe to say, Albert cannot wait to be a big brother.

FAMILY & FRIENDS

Family is where love grows, laughter lives,
and memories are made.

OUR THOUGHTS ON ADOPTION

Adoption has always been something we talked about, even before we were married. After four years of infertility, adoption settled deeply into our hearts, and we both have a strong desire to start our family through adoption. Adoption is not new to our families, and we are blessed to have adoption already represented in our niece. We have seen firsthand how adoption has added layers of love, happiness, joy, and smiles to our lives.

Adoption is one of the deepest forms of love and sacrifice imaginable. We look forward to partnering with you in loving and caring for the child you have carried and protected. Your child will know you love them and that you love them enough to make the selfless decision to choose another couple to raise them.

We both come from big families where your child will be surrounded by many aunts, uncles, and cousins. Our families cannot wait to welcome another family member to love, and the kids are excited to have a new cousin.

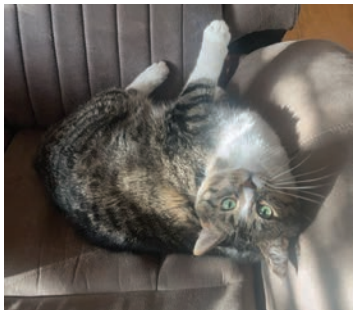

"Adoption, to us, is a beautiful reflection of love, sacrifice, and faith."

WHAT WE HOPE TO OFFER A CHILD

We hope to offer a child a home filled with unconditional love, safety, and encouragement to grow into exactly who they are meant to be. Our greatest goal is to create a space where they feel deeply valued, heard, loved, and supported every single day. We want to provide stability, guidance, and opportunities to explore their interests, celebrate their strengths, and learn from life's challenges with confidence.

We hope to nurture their curiosity, share meaningful traditions, and build new ones together, from everyday moments like family meals and bedtime stories to big milestones and adventures. We are committed to being patient, present, and compassionate parents who will advocate for them, celebrate them, and stand beside them through every stage of life.

Most of all, we hope they will always know they are loved beyond measure and that our family is a place where they will forever belong.

Our promise to you is simple. We will love your child with the same unconditional, selfless love that Christ shows us. We are committed to nurturing a home rooted in steadfast love, where we continually fight for our family and our marriage with grace and intention. We view adoption as a beautiful reflection of Christ's love, a reminder of His faithfulness and provision, and we promise to raise your child in a home grounded in faith, compassion, and the teachings of Christ.

unconditional love | safety | encouragement | guidance

THANK YOU

From the bottom of our hearts, thank you for reading about us, our life together, and our desire to care for and nurture a child. Even though we do not know you, we pray for you every day and trust God to cross our paths.

We know the weight of your decision to trust us with your child is something we will never fully understand. We vow to teach them about you, your story, and how choosing life for them was a decision rooted in deep love and selflessness. As they grow, they will always know your story, and we will have a relationship with you if you desire.

With grateful hearts, Jake and Faith